Meeting Minutes

In the absence of our president, Michelle Knoerzer, Deborah Boschert called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.

Raffle: Diana Pease assisted with raffle tickets. A total of $12.00 was raised.

Announcements: Deborah announced the following programs:

November 24th: The “Make and Take” mini workshops will begin at 6:30 pm. There will be four 30-minute sessions, each lead by one of our members. A total of $2.00 will be charged to cover expenses in restocking the instructors’ supplies.

December 22nd: Potluck Holiday Celebration and Silent Auction will be held at CC Young. There will also be a Salvage Sale to help raise funds for DAFA.

January 26th: Ginny Eckley will be program presenter, holding a mini-workshop/demo at 5:30. From 6:30-7:30 she will offer silk screening. The January 24th workshop location is not yet determined. Tonight is the final night for members to reserve their place with a $25 deposit. Tomorrow, the workshop will be opened to non-members.

February: Ed Noyce will present weaving for the program.

Audrey Legatowicz and Valery Guignon will be selling at the Art With A Cause benefit this weekend. The location is Peek Ave. & Swiss Ave. in Dallas.

Show & Tell: The following members showed the items they’re currently working on and/or had just finished: Pam Patton, Peggy Tjachman, Karen Chaussabel, and Valery Guignon.

Program: Cheryl Darrow of TENseconds Studio shared her story about her creative life and how her studio came into being. Her daughter Megan, who actually runs most of the business now, was with her. Her studio is located in North Richland Hills and she is continuing to expand into books, CD’s and DVD’s. She presented a mini-workshop before the meeting where members created embossed metal liners for Metal Travel Mugs. Her mail-order side of the business is still small, but she said Marco’s Paper carries her products.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 pm.
