Meeting Minutes

Michelle called the meeting to order and Becky Howdeshell drew six raffle tickets for various craft books. Michelle reported that the Membership Directory was delayed due to Federation computer problems but would be printed for release to members next month. Everyone has new membership cards and the discount cards for Azle Art Supply and Kroger are in the works.

Workshop: Ginny Eckley is coming to DAFA on Saturday, January 24, 2009 and will teach a Setacolor (fabric paint) Workshop. The workshop cost is $50 for DAFA members, $55 for non-members. The supply kit is $30. Sara Moe showed some samples of silk screened pieces from a previous workshop she took from Ginny. Ginny will be presenting the program on Creativity on Monday January 26, 2009. Her mini-workshop will be on her PhotoEZ Silk Screens. Ginny's websites are: www.fabricpainting.com and www.photoezsilkscreen.com. Early registration is open for members only through the October meeting. Deborah is taking deposit checks now.

Announcements:

Audrey Legatowicz handed out a list of upcoming shows.

Sara Moe announced that she is giving a demo at ART 251 Gallery in Keller Thursday night, September 25.

Connie Akers announced that a new gallery, OXIDE opened in Denton. They currently do not feature any fiber art, but Connie encouraged members to investigate showing their work there.

Deborah Boschert will be teaching two workshops in her home studio, October 10 and 17.

Connie Akers is hosting a dyeing workshop at her home this Saturday, September 27.

Valery Guignon is showing two sculptures at the Texas State Fair.

Show and Tell:

Jo Appleton, Dorothy Clarke, Elizabeth Harkins, Suzanne Morgan, Sandi Wheeler, Vet, Katina Hronas, Sherrie Tootle, Connie Akers, and Michelle Knoerzer showed their work.

Programs:

The October 27th program features Cheryl Darrow, from Ten Seconds Studio, speaking on "Finding Your Big Momma: the Creative Journey". Cheryl will teach a min-workshop making an embossed travel mug. The kit fee is $10.

The November 24th program is Mixed Media Make and Take. We will be rotating to different stations and making a variety of projects taught by members.

Tonight's program, "Swimming Upstream" was presented by Becky Howdeshell.

Respectfully Submitted,
Carol Regan
